It the Henate bills were introduced on the 19th to establish and maintain a National park in Colorade and appropriating $18.485 to complete and dedicate the monument to commemorate the surrender of Burgope at Sarjilogi. Eulogies on the deceased New York Mepresentatives, Mesars Nutrice and Wilber, were pronounced. An amendment was offered to the tarif bill mithorizing the President to declare the ports of any American nation which shall extend a like privilege to the United States open to the Imports of any American nation which shall extend a like privilege to the United States. ... In the House the time was occupied in a wrangle over the disposition by the Speaker of the sill vor coinage bill, the journal reading that the bill had been referred to the committee on tolinage. A resolution to correct the journal and bring back the bill from the committee was, after considerable sharp debate, agreed to—190 to 117. A motion to reconsider was then fluxing adopted—121 to 114—but an adjourn ment was had pending a motion to approve the journal as amended.

The post-office appropriation bill (878,469,690) and the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill were reported in the Senate on the 30th and the legislative appropriation bill was passed... In the House a motion to approve the journal of Wednesday's proceeding as amended on Thursday was agreed to by a vote of 132 to 150. A motion was then hade that the House preced to the consideration of the bills on the Speaker's table, and especially the silver bill. A point of order was made that the bill was not on the Speaker's table, but in the hands of the Committee on colwage, weights and measures. After some discussion the matter went never for the day.

The bill to devote the proceeds of the property of the Mormon church to purpose of education in Utah was passed in the Senate on the 31st, and the bill to restore the irrigable lands of the United States to settlement was favorably reported... In the House Speaker Reed decided that the reference of the si CONTRESSIONAL the Speaker: Yes, 1441 mays, 117.

The report of the committee on the dependict pension bill was agreed to in the Senate be the 23d by a vote of 34 to 18. The agricultural college sid bill was passed and the bill providing for fundry lighthouses and other aids to wavigation on the great lakes was favorably reported. The House did little Duisness. The conferrees on the general pension appropriation bill falled to agree, the House insisting upon its disagreement to the Senate amendments, and then adjourned.

tetion of the North American Torner Bund in Session in New York City—A National Teachers' Seminary to be Ea-tablished at Milwaukee. Wis.—A Vic-tory for the West.

New York, June 24.—The North American Turners' Bond held a morning, afternoon and night session yesterday. At the roll-call 235 delegates answered to their names. The business began with a question of admitting to the floor Turner teachers; this was allowed with the restriction that they should not be given a voice in the proceedings. The Milwaukee Turn proceedings. The Milwaukee Zeitung, edited by C. H. Bottee, chosen by a committee as the official organ of the convention, and this was ratified by the convention.

The Turners' Muthal Benefit Associa-tion of the Northwest requested the support of the Turner Bund. It met with much opposition, and the question was temperarily disposed of by sending it to the committee on organization.

Reports of committees were next in order. The executive committee reported an increase in 1889, of twenty-six bunds, numbering 4,343. This brings the total membership up to 35,912. The treasury showed a balance of $10,911.
A donation of $5,000 was made to the Conemaugh Valley flood fund.

The report of the committee on intellectual development made it the duty of every society to provide at least six lectures annually advocating the principles of the Turner Bund, also to establish night and Sunday schools for the young between fourteen and eightyears of age, and to stock their libraries with moral literature.

The committee on ethical culture submitted that two prizes should be given annually for essays on turning and gen-

A long discussion arose on the proposition to establish a teachers' seminary in Milwaukee, Wis., and to consolidate with it the German-American Teachers' Institute of Indianapolis. The latter has been heretofore a preambulating in-stitute from city to city. The need of an institute like this to provide a place where Turner teachers could be qualified mentally to teach in public schools where the children thus tutored would be especially favored in having competent instructors to drill both their bodies and their minos. Sectional jealousy caused the matter to be lengthily debated. The Eastern divisions of the Bund did not care to see the West monopolize a permanent seat of learning of this kind. But this feeling at last gave way to the general welfare of the liund. Milwaukee was chosen as the seat of this National institute because it was the center of a strongly German portion of the country, and, moreover, the Bund had been offered by a citizen the free gift of a valuable lot Much satisfaction is expressed by the Western delegates at the outcome of the contest for the institute.

The night finished with an entertainment at Ninety-first street and Third avenue, tendered the Bund by the Homestead Club.

On Thursday Father Hartman, a Jesuit priest from Buffalo, came here to hold a retreat for the young ladies of St. John's Church. Miss Hennessey was among the forty who were to join Sunday evening. She besought the priest to pray for her that she might be healed. For three days he prayed with the young lady and her family. Sunday night she hobbled to the altar to join the Sodality, and when the priest put the society medal about her neck she arose in sight of all and departed without cratches. She left the church weeping for joy, and is apparently as well as ever. The affair created much excitement in the neighborhood and is the talk of the town.
